

Excursion to Aleppo with Karam Foundation: April 24-27

Join IEFG Partner Karam Foundation on a 3-day visit to Aleppo to understand this pivotal moment for Syria. Visit Karam’s innovative education programs, speak with various leaders in the education space, and meet some of the young people shaping Syria's future. The trip will also include guided visits to Aleppo’s historic sites and cultural landmarks, offering a deep understanding of the city’s past, present, and unfolding reconstruction. An intimate, insight-driven experience, you will leave with context and understanding of the opportunities and needs ahead as Syria rebuilds.

Roundtrip flights on Royal Jordanian Airlines from Amman to Aleppo depart Friday morning April 24th and return Monday morning April 27th. Itinerary includes:

Post-Conflict Context

- Understand Aleppo’s evolving landscape after a decade of war
- Former east–west divisions and urban recovery patterns
 - Rural–urban disparities in reconstruction
 - School infrastructure: renovated vs. unrepaired facilities
 - Community resilience

Education Sector Focus

- Insights into learning, youth development, and system rebuilding
- Visits to Karam partner schools
 - Karam-led innovative-education activities
 - Roundtable with educators on post-conflict education and workforce pathways

Cultural Heritage & Preservation

- Reconnecting with Syria’s history, identity, and living traditions
- Citadel of Aleppo and Old City restoration
 - Surrounding heritage sites
 - Craftsmanship revival & heritage restoration
 - Syrian hospitality: gathering in a family home

Excursion Cost Estimated $750-$1,000 USD, excluding RT flights Amman-Aleppo:
Hotel & Meals (3 nights)
Transportation
Activities

For more details & registration, email lexi@karamfoundation.org

About Karam Foundation:

Karam Foundation has impacted and improved the lives of 100,000+ Syrian refugees since 2011. As a Syrian-led organization, with a staff that is 50% refugees, we provide tools and opportunities for Syrian refugee youth and families in Turkiye and Syria so that they can reach their full potential. Learn more: www.karamfoundation.org

